

Previous Model	Proposed Model
1) User downloads HTML document http://www.website.com into browser	1) User downloads HTML document http://www.website.com into browser
2) User reads content on this website	2a) User reads content on this website 2b) Algorithms in browser searches http://www.website.com for links (such as http://www.website.com/link1 ), downloads the content into a temporary folder .
3) User finds an interesting and clicks on link http://www.website.com/link1	3) User finds an interesting and clicks on link http://www.website.com/link1
4) File is downloaded to temporary internet folder	4) Browser loads file for http://www.website.com/link1 from temporary internet folder.
5) Browser loads file for http://www.website.com/link1 from temporary internet folder

Table 1

Figure 2

